

Editing your writing

When you have finished your writing, read it again and make sure you check for the following things. (Tick them when you think you have included them!)

- Have you used lots of adjectives to describe your characters and setting?
- Have you checked your spellings?
- Do your sentences make sense?
- Have you put a Capital letter at the beginning of each sentence, and a full stop at the end?
- Have you used lots of different sentence starters?
- Have you used speech marks correctly?
- Did you manage to use conjunctions?
- Have you included punctuation like commas?
