Their lives are poor and sad because they don't do anything fun.

They work hard as they have to chop their own wood and collect eggs for breakfast.

I think these people are a Grandma, a woodcutter and a little girl who collects eggs.

I think the old lady is sewing clothes as she is preparing for the cold weather to come.

Their lives are scary as there may be wild animals in the forest.

I think this is from the past because they don't have many things in their garden.

I think the girl is kind and nice because she is feeding the chickens and she is smiling.
