Mr Hodgkins ordered 138 boxes of Jaffa cakes for his birthday. Mrs Stirling kindly gave him 47 boxes too. How many boxes does he have altogether?

Mrs Harrocks bakes 208 cakes for the year 3 meeting. If Mrs Ward brings 65 more, how many do they have in total?

Dr Jones gave out 147 sherbet lemons to year 3 last week. He also gave 126 to year 4. How many did he give out in total?

Mrs Williamson has read 218 books in her lifetime. Mr Mathew has read 165. What is the sum of the books they have read together?

The Orchards has 149 pupils in year 3. There are 521 in the rest of the school. How many attend the Orchards in total?

Mr Burnham reads 136 pages of his comic on Monday. He then continues to read 149 pages on Tuesday. How much has he read so far?

Mr Hodgkins' son repeated the word 'cakey' 417 times on Saturday. He then said it a further 364 times on Sunday. How many times has Mr Hodgkins heard the word 'cakey' this weekend?

135 pupils ride their bikes to school and 49 ride a scooter. How many scooters and bikes arrive at school each morning?

The year 3 pupils have earned 1,027 sparkle points between them. Mrs Harrocks wants them to gain 425 more by half term. How many will they have if they achieve this?

Mr Gurney fixes 134 lockers before half term. After half term he fixes an additional 387. How many has he fixed altogether?

What is the sum of 362 and 129?

The school spends £358 on pens and £239 on pencils. How much has been spent in total?