

What to do today

IMPORTANT Parent or Carer – Read this page with your child and check that you are happy with what they have to do and any weblinks or use of internet.

1. Read a poem

- Read Ode to Marbles. Which is your favourite phrase in this poem? What makes it an ode?

2. Plan a poem

- Think of your favourite food. Write it down and now plan an ode about it.
- You can record ideas on the Idea Bank Builder.
- The Ice Buns Example may help you to do this.

3. Write your poem

- Write some of your favourite ideas on the Ode Strips.
- Move these around to change the order and add extra lines if you like.
- When you are ready, copy your poem out carefully. Use your best handwriting!

Try these Fun-Time Extras

- Practise reading your poem aloud. Read the Reading Aloud Tips to help you. You could record your reading and share it with somebody else.
- Find out other people's favourite foods and why they like them. Use these ideas to write more odes.

Ode to Marbles

I love the sound of marbles scattered on the worn wooden floor, like children running away in a game of hide-and-seek.

I love the sight of white marbles, blue marbles,
green marbles, black,
new marbles, old marbles,
iridescent marbles,
with glass-ribbioned swirls, dancing round and round.

I love the feel of marbles,
cool, smooth,
rolling freely in my palm,
like smooth-sided stars that light up the worn world.

Ode Strips

Oh

You are

You are like

I love the way you

When I taste you, I

You are

And, most importantly, you are mine, oh

A new ode

Write your new poem here. Present it as carefully as you can.

A large rectangular writing area with a decorative orange and black zigzag border. The interior of the rectangle is filled with horizontal ruling lines, providing a guide for writing. The border is composed of a repeating pattern of orange zigzags and small black dots.

Reading Aloud Tips

- Speak clearly - appropriate volume, speed & enunciation
- Face the audience and make eye-contact
- Use actions, move your body position, and change the expression of your face
- Use voice for effect - try varying tone and volume
- Learn the poem to allow a more energetic performance
- Try to judge how the performance is being received by watching your audience
