

Literacy work – weeks beginning 1/2/21 & 8/2/21

For the next 2 weeks you will be working through the Talk for Writing booklet - 'Doors - the World of possibility' – you should spend approximately 10 hours on this.

There are lots of fun activities which will continue to build grammar and writing skills to help you create your own story.

There is a copy of Kit Wright's poem 'The Magic Box' included in the pack.

- Remember to let your imagination run wild and use all your senses to create an image.
- Complete the activities in the order they are set to help develop your ideas.
- Enjoy being creative and use powerful description to build an image in your reader's mind of your characters and setting.
- Edit and redraft your work before publishing it.
- Show off your story by sending us a copy of on Class Dojo or if you enjoyed recording your last piece, record your story to send to us.
